

SON OF KAISER WEBS DUCHESS AMID SPLENDOR

Empress Crowns the Bride and Nation's Guns Tell Event to the People.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—Duchess Alexandra Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein, daughter of Prince Frederick, Duke of Schleswig-Holstein, was married in the chapel of the imperial palace at 5 o'clock this afternoon to Prince August Wilhelm of Prussia, fourth son of Emperor William.

The ceremony was witnessed by the members of the imperial family and some fifty Princes and Princesses of the minor German royal houses. The Chancellor of the Empire, Prince von Bismarck, as well as the other high state functionaries, the members of the diplomatic corps, including Dr. Hill, the American Ambassador, and the members of the embassy staff with their wives, together about 800 guests, also were present.

The civil ceremony was held in the private apartment of the Palace, after which the Empress placed the Hohenzollern crown upon the head of the young Princess. The royal party then marched in procession to the Chapel. The bride was clad in a white silk dress trimmed with lace, and her train, which was richly embroidered with silver and thirteen feet long, was borne by four pages. The simple ceremony of the Lutheran State Church was performed by Dr. Dryander, the court preacher, assisted by several minor ecclesiastics.

As the rings were exchanged the artillery in the Palace Square began firing a salute, and the crashing sounds were interrupted by the melodious chiming of the church bells. The Emperor and the Empress kissed the bride couple.

After the ceremony the royal party marched to the White Hall of the palace and held a reception to some 2,000 invited guests.

Prince August Wilhelm is twenty-one years old and a lieutenant of the First Regiment of Foot Guards. His bride is three months his junior.

CITY MAY LOSE THE YERKES ART GALLERY

Insurance Company About to Foreclose $225,000 Mortgage on Mansion.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company is about to foreclose a mortgage of $225,000, with accrued interest of $100,000, on the mansion of the late Charles T. Yerkes at Sixty-eighth street and Fifth avenue. This action may have the effect of depriving the people of New York of the magnificent art gallery, bequeathed to the city by Mr. Yerkes in his will.

It appears that because of the domestic entanglements of the millionaire at the time of his death no steps have been taken by the trustees of the Metropolitan Museum of Art to take over the Yerkes property under the terms of the bequest. Mrs. Yerkes has neglected to pay the interest on the mortgage, and an application was made to the Supreme Court in March last for the appointment of a receiver to make an accounting of the debt owed the Mutual Life.

John H. Jude was appointed referee and rendered judgment in favor of the mortgagee for default. The report has been confirmed and Mr. Jude has been appointed referee in the foreclosure proceedings.

CROKER LOST MANY THOUSANDS IN THE MORSE ICE POOL.

Morse went away satisfied. That night Van Wyck crowded some traveling bags into a trunk and engaged passage on a steamer sailing the next day.

Morse followed on the next boat. It amounted practically to a chase—country chase of Europe. Morse pursued Van Wyck's trail through Switzerland, intent on getting him into the syndicate, and finally lost him in the Urals and came home disappointed. Van Wyck was the only man who won in the first pool that didn't get stung in the second.

Former Justice O'Brien, who was induced to invest in the second pool, will testify regarding his losses. It is along toward this stage of the case that mention will be made of the losses which Croker, Sexton and other politico-financiers suffered.

One Juror Ill.

The trial of Morse and Curtis was halted to-day by the illness of one of the jurors. The sick man is Gordon Wendell, juror No. 9, a commission merchant of No. 51 North street, whose home is at No. 125 East Thirty-fifth street.

The illness of Mr. Wendell will probably result in a revocation of Judge Hough's order confining the jurors to the Anso House under guard of Secret Service men. Mr. Wendell's family physician, Dr. Samuel Lambert, of No. 120 East Thirty-fifth street, has written to Judge Hough that he will not permit his patient to be kept from home any longer, as further close confinement would endanger his life.

Million School Children Enter a Great Contest for Writing Prizes

THE EVENING WORLD'S WRITING CONTEST
For the School Children of Greater New York.

$500 in Prizes for the Boys and Girls Who Write the Following Sentence in the Best Style:

The Evening World is read in our home

Name of Pupil.....
Age..... Residence.....
School.....
Teacher's Signature.....

The information called for in the above box must be furnished with each specimen of handwriting. You may use the above coupon if you desire, but all specimens sent with this information arranged as above on any paper will be freely entered in the contest. Send your handwriting to "Handwriting Editor," Evening World, P. O. Box 1354, New York City. The contest closes Nov. 28.

To encourage the nearly one million school children of Greater New York in their writing lessons;

To help the teachers who have this important branch of study in hand by offering a new stimulus for their pupils;

And to interest parents and guardians in the progress of the young people in the art of penmanship, The Evening World has planned a contest in this line of school work for the boys and girls of the greater city, in which prizes aggregating $500 will be awarded as follows:

TO THE BOYS AND GIRLS OF EIGHT YEARS OR UNDER—$100 in prizes, as follows: First prize, $20; second prize, $10; third prize, $5; six prizes of $3 each; six prizes of $2 each, and thirty-five prizes of $1 each.

TO THE BOYS AND GIRLS OF 9 TO 10 YEARS—$100 in prizes. First prize, $20; second prize, $10; third prize, $5; six prizes of $3 each; six prizes of $2 each, and thirty-five prizes of $1 each.

TO THE BOYS AND GIRLS FROM 10 TO 12 YEARS—$100 in prizes. First prize, $20; second prize, $10; third prize, $5; six prizes of $3 each; six prizes of $2 each, and thirty-five prizes of $1 each.

TO THE BOYS AND GIRLS FROM 12 TO 14 YEARS—$100 in prizes. First prize, $20; second prize, $10; third prize, $5; six prizes of $3 each; six prizes of $2 each, and thirty-five prizes of $1 each.

TO THE BOYS AND GIRLS FROM 14 TO 16 YEARS—$100 in prizes. First prize, $20; second prize, $10; third prize, $5; six prizes of $3 each; six prizes of $2 each, and thirty-five prizes of $1 each.

Any boy or girl not more than sixteen years of age in any school in Greater New York can enter this competition and work for one of the prizes.

The Evening World asks its young readers to copy this short sentence: "The Evening World is read in our home," in their best handwriting and send it to The Evening World office.

Comply with the simple conditions in the accompanying coupon, be careful with your writing, keep your paper nice and clean and fold it neatly if it requires folding, for all these elements will be considered in awarding the prizes.

BRYAN UNDOING THE WORK OF TAFT

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 22.—

Promising a reply later to President Roosevelt's letter attacking him on the labor question, William J. Bryan to-day swung out on a fresh trail in West Virginia. He advanced every argument calculated to undo any effects which the visit of W. H. Taft to the State may have accomplished. His earlier addresses were made to the farmers, and he told them that the Republicans, friends of extension, are the cause of their troubles, and with no policy behind them that promises good for those who toil. He contradicted at every turn the charge that his election would mean business depression.

HAS PUT THIRTY CROOKED BANKERS IN PRISON CELLS

Moxey, Mathematical Wizard,
Has Perfect Score as an Expert Witness.

In the second day of the trial of Charles W. Morse, the former "Ice King," and Alfred H. Curtis, in the United States Court, there mounted the witness stand a person who answered to the slightly unusual but not particularly dashing name of Edward P. Moxey.

Replying to the first question of the Federal prosecutor, this person said he hailed from Philadelphia and that he was employed as a special examiner in the Department of Justice at Washington. Then he opened a Russia leather tome like the Domesday Book and began to drone.

Wonder is the word. Mr. Moxey is one of those men who know more about figures than the ancient Arabian who figures that the world is round and slightly stooped, as befits a man who spends his days—and probably nights—looped up over a desk. He has gray side-whiskers, cool, gray eyes and a cool, gray manner. He speaks in short, choppy accents which suggest coolness and grayness.

And he has put thirty national bankers in national penitentiaries. That is his calling—putting bankers who go wrong where they'll have to do right.

He has compiled the evidence against thirty of them, using their own books mainly as his ammunition pile, and he has convicted thirty of them, thus establishing a fielding average of 1.000.

When the Government particularly wants to get some erring banker, it sends Mr. Moxey gunning, and he always brings home the pelt. At least he always has.

Little Mr. Moxey came to New York straight from Chicago, where he prepared the testimony which the United States lawyers used to convict John R. Walsh. For five months now he has been working under Receiver Hanna on the accounts of the suspended National Bank of North America.

PRESCRIPTION IS EASILY PREPARED

Splendid Home-Made Mixture
for the Kidneys, Bladder or Rheumatism.

The following prescription for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles has no doubt been filled millions of times, viz.: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumblerful of water after each dose. It is stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic affections, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings.

A well-known authority states that this mixture acts directly on the eliminative tissues of the kidneys; cleanses these spongy organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste water and uric acid from the blood which is the cause of rheumatism.

If your back or sides ache and you suspect kidney trouble, it would be wise to try this for a few days.

MISS CURTIS BEATEN IN GOLF TOURNEY

Miss Harley Surprises Gallery by Defeating the Title Holder.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—There was another chapter of surprises this afternoon at the finish of the third round of match play in the Women's National Golf Championship at the Chevy Chase Club. Miss Margarette Curtis, Boston, title holder, who was thought sure to be a finalist, following the upsets of yesterday, fell before Miss Kate Harley, of Fall River, 4 down and 2 to go.

Miss Curtis lost the first four holes in succession, halved the next two, and then won three straight, which left her one down at the turn. Each went out in 41, equalling the men's bogie. Then the current began running the other way, and Miss Curtis did not win another hole, losing 2 and halving 4.

Another unexpected development was the defeat of Miss Georgiana Bishop, Metropolltan champion, 3 down and 2 to go, by Mrs. Caleb Fox, of Philadelphia. Their match was squared for the third time on the eighth and Mrs. Fox was 1 up at the turn and the same on the twelfth. Of the remaining holes she won 2 and lost 2. Mrs. T. H. Pothemus, New York, beat Miss Carmelita Shreve, Boston, 3 up and 2 to go. Miss Marion Oliver beat her Washington clubmate, Mrs. Grimsby McCammon by the unexpected total of 2 up and 6 to go.

The Victim of Drink

Needs Orrine Treatment—Cure Effected or Money Refunded.

Drink cunningly destroys the will power, and while the drunkard wants to do what you tell him, he wants a thousand times more the drink that he craves. Medical treatment is necessary to destroy the craving, and this Orrine will do.

It destroys the desire for liquor, so that the drink will not be missed, also cures the deranged digestion, weakens nerves and other ill effects of excessive drinking, restoring the patient to perfect health. The remedy is absolutely harmless, is thoroughly scientific and is so uniformly successful that it is sold with a registered guarantee entitling you to a refund of your money if Orrine fails to effect a cure. Booklet on "How to Cure Drunkard" sent free on request in plain sealed wrapper. The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C.

It is in two forms: No. 1, which can be given secretly without the patient's knowledge; No. 2, in pill form for those who wish to be cured. The price of either is $1, mailed on receipt of price in plain sealed package, and both are sold under the guarantee. Order sold by:
